Budgeting, spending and savings plan, monthly/yearly financial plan, whatever you call it... whatever your method is (or isn't) that you do each month to make sure the bills get paid, this chat is for you. One of the great things about 2020 is that it opened up the door to some new ways we can communicate and bring resources to you without leaving your house. Every month, UI Extension will offer a POP-UP CHAT on the first Thursday of every month.

In these chats, we will talk about budgeting tools, tips and ideas to help you make the most of your dollars. You are welcome to come to one or all of the sessions. Each session will be different to cover all of the resources but will always have the same common theme... creating a livable spending and savings plan.

Bring your questions... we'll have answers.

Palouse Habitat for Humanity Announces Future Homeowners for homes in Uniontown, WA

Palouse Habitat for Humanity is happy to announce the homeowners for two Habitat homes in Uniontown, Washington: Breanne and Kelcey Leaseburg and Kyle Hansen.

Breanne and Kelcey are parents to three-year-old Alora. Breanne grew up in Pullman, and Kelcey is originally from Colville, WA. The family is very much looking forward to a home where they can all sit down to a meal together. "Our current home doesn't have enough space for even a small kitchen table so we are bunched up together on the couch. Breanne is a cook at the local hospital and being able to have the space to make home-cooked meals and eat with room for everyone is very important to her. We appreciate this blessing and will do everything as a family to take care of this home."

Kyle Hansen is a single father with sole custody of his six-year-old son Kyas. "I had to move a lot as a kid, and I wanted something different for Kyas, for him to have a room that would always be his room, to have a safe yard to play in, to have a school where he could make friends to grow up with and to have a place where, once he is grown, that he can always come back to if he ever needs to."

The Leaseburg home is already under construction and is expected to be complete later this summer. The build was delayed due to the pandemic. Construction was limited to one day a week with core group of volunteers. The annual fundraiser was delayed and eventually went online.

Habitat hopes to begin construction on the Hansen home this spring. The home is projected to cost over $130,000 due to the rising cost of building materials. Palouse Habitat hopes to raise these funds during its annual fundraiser event, Beans 'n' Jeans, online next month. To learn how to donate, please go to palousehabitat.org/donate/.

Habitat homeowners are selected based on criteria that included need, ability to make an affordable mortgage payment, and willingness to partner in the home build. The Habitat Homeowner Selection committee carefully reviews financial history, conducts credit and background checks, home visits, and reference checks as part of the selection process. Selected homeowners must contribute 300-400 hours of "sweat equity", working alongside the volunteers building their homes, contribute a share of the closing costs, participate in a financial education program, and ultimately purchase the home from Palouse Habitat for an affordable mortgage.

Moscow ArtWalk

The City of Moscow and the Moscow Arts Commission are excited to announce the 16th Annual Moscow Artwalk, Thur., June 17, from 4 p.m. to 8 p.m.

In the interest of public safety, this year's Artwalk will be modified. Familiar features such as the Main Street closure and street fair are postponed until 2022; however, artists will still be featured at host locations throughout Moscow during this year's event.

Artwalk 2021 is an opportunity to celebrate the creative community of Moscow. The event aims to feature visual, literary, performing, and culinary arts. Businesses are encouraged to use this event to promote their regular creative offerings as well as any special arts presentations.

It is up to host locations to select, connect, and pair with the local artists they wish to host. Host locations are encouraged to seek visual, literary, performing, and culinary artists. For a list of local and regional artists, view the City of Moscow's Artist Directory at bit.ly/moscowartistdirectory. Host location registration will open in early April.

All host locations are responsible for following pandemic-related requirements for gathering sizes, sanitation, face coverings, and any other regulations set forth by the State of Idaho and the City of Moscow.

For more information regarding the June 17 Artwalk, including event details and how to register as a host location, visit: <https://www.ci.moscow.id.us/189/Artwalk>.

Little Logger Leaders March 2021

Ms. Montgomery's Second Grade: Raiden Judson is our March Little Logger Leader. Raiden is a leader as he has the ability to believe in himself. Raiden demonstrates this by the confidence he shows in his words, actions, and on his lessons. With this confidence, he is also very generous in sharing his helpful qualities with others. Keep up the great work, Raiden.

Mrs. Weaver's Fifth Grade: Lyli Taylor is our Little Logger Leader for March. Lyli shares her upbeat, optimistic attitude with her classmates. She is attentive in class and always ready to learn and participate. We are thankful for the positive input Lyli gives. Keep up the great work, Lyli!

Mr. Christianson's Sixth Grade: Our March LLL is Evie Farnham: There are many defining characteristics that can make someone a leader. What makes Evie our Little Logger Leader is her determination, her work ethic, and work attitude. You can look to her to be setting classroom expectations; coming into the classroom prepared, being an active member of the classroom, and being courteous and respectful to her peers. You can tell by the quality of her work that she takes her time and puts forth her best effort into every assignment that I give her. Keep up the great work, Evie!

Ms. Greer's Second Grade: Our Little Logger Leader for the month of March is Brooke Richmond! Brooke has shown exceptional leadership in our class in many ways. She has transitioned back into full time with ease and grace, taking in all of our new routines with a smile on her face. She was one of the first kids to reach out to her "new" classmates, introducing herself, and asking if they wanted to play with her at recess. Brooke has shown amazing perseverance and kindness not only for this month, but for the entire year. I am so proud of you, Brooke!

Mrs. Pfaff's Third Grade: The Little Logger Leader for March is Gabriella Scalso. Gabriella joined our class in January and has shown herself to be a kind, helpful, and friendly classmate. Gabriella is always the first to jump out of her chair and offer help to a classmate. She does her class work then volunteers to help others who are confused. Gabriella quickly became part of our class and it seems like she has been with us all year! I appreciate her patience with others and willingness to try new things. We are so glad you joined us, Gabby!

Mr. Gossack's Sixth Grade: Rebekah Hawley is our LLL for March. Bekah is a joy to have in my classroom. This year I have seen Bekah challenge herself to become better and work harder at her academics. While she has worked to challenge herself, I have watched her challenge her peers to work harder and do their best. Bekah, keep up the awesome work and continue to positively influence those around you!

Mrs. Wilson's Fourth Grade: The March Little Logger Leader is Austin Felton. Austin is an amazing student leader in many ways. He takes his learning seriously, keeping tabs on his progress, and genuinely striving to do better whenever he can. He has a quiet confidence that inspires trust in his classmates. He is willing to help others with a kind and considerate attitude and is always happy when others succeed. In addition, he is a true friend to his classmates and extremely fun to be around! Keep up the great work, Austin!

Mrs. Carlson's Fifth Grade: Our Little Logger Leader for March is Trey Magallon. Trey is a hard working student who puts first things first. He organizes his time to make sure he gets all of his work done before moving on to other projects. When others need it, he is quick to step in and help. Trey leads by example in his friendships and his grit in the classroom. Way to go, Trey!

Ms. Ridgeway's Fourth Grade: Our March Little Logger leader is Millie Montgomery. Millie is so much fun to have in class. She is kind, hardworking, and compassionate. Millie can always be counted on to do the right thing and give her best effort. We have enjoyed learning from her this year and are grateful for what she brings to our class community. Keep up the great work, Millie!

Mrs. Short's Kindergartens: Avery McCarver is our Busy Bee Little Logger Leader for March. Avery shows kindness to every person she interacts with and she goes out of her way to help others at every opportunity. Avery is a hard worker who takes her time to do her best work on every activity. She is eager to learn, especially in reading and writing. Avery has a positive attitude every day, and is patient and polite with teachers and classmates. Thank you for being such a kind member of our class, Avery!

Our Eager Beaver Little Logger Leader for March is Autumn Logue. Autumn is such a bright spot in every person's day with her kind nature, sweet smile, and funny sense of humor. Autumn is a leader in our classroom by having a great attitude, working hard, and helping others. Autumn tries very hard to do the right thing and she works hard to do her best on everything she does. We all appreciate you, Autumn!

Mrs. Gussenhoven's First Grade: Zoey Ainsworth is the Little Logger Leader for the month of March. She works hard to complete her assignments on time and participates in class discussions very well. Zoey is kind to all her classmates and is willing to help when someone is in need. I look forward to seeing her bright smile every day. I am so proud of you and keep up the hard work!

Mrs. Burkgart and Ms Roper's Third Grade: For March Little Logger Leader, we picked Kenzi Heitstuman. Kenzi has a heart of gold and gives her best no matter the situation. She has been working so hard this year and it shows! She is always a huge helper in class and with her classmates. She goes out of her way to make sure everyone is having a good day; she is always there with an encouraging word and a smile. She is an amazing part of our class family!

Mrs. McKinney's First Grade: Eli Calderon is our Little Logger Leader! Eli joined us a few weeks ago and he has been a wonderful addition to our class. Eli is a hard worker and does well on everything he sets his mind to. He is kind and caring to all of his classmates and he is a very good helper. OUR SCHOOLS: March/April 2021

It has been a long time coming, almost a full year, but all our students are once again attending school all together and every day. For the last month and a half we have been able to get back to some semblance of “normalcy”. We are still very much aware that this could change in a heartbeat with a spike or an outbreak in our schools and/or community, but we are cautiously optimistic that we will be able to keep our students and staff safe and healthy for the remainder of the school year and end the school year on a high note. Thank you to our students, parents, and patrons, for being as patient as possible as we navigated through this difficult time together.

Earlier this month, we ran our annual Supplemental Levy and it passed with our taxpayers and community support. Although this has been a tremendously difficult year due to the COVID pandemic, I’m pleased that the majority of our voters recognized the importance of our District’s Supplemental Levy and the importance it has on the day-to-day operations of keeping our students and schools strong and successful. I cannot express my appreciation to the voters enough for the positive support for our District. Thank you!

And lastly, I constantly update and report to you in the C.I.A., employees of the District that resign or plan to resign and move on to the next chapters of their lives. This month, it is my turn to write about myself. At the end of this school year, and after forty (40) years in the Education field, I plan to retire. I have been superintendent for our district for ten years and I have thoroughly enjoyed the opportunity the Potlatch School District has given me. We have come a long way in those ten years and made great strides in many areas; academics, facilities, educational leadership, and much, much more. In the weeks ahead, our Board of Trustees will work with the Idaho School Board Association to begin a Superintendent’s Search, in order to find and select the best candidate that will “take over the helm” for the District this upcoming school year. Parents and community stakeholders will have the opportunity to be part of the hiring process and provide feedback to our Board of Trustees in order for them to make their decision on the best candidate. Information and updates on the Superintendent Search will be added to our webpage at www.psd285.org, as well as on our Facebook page, in order to keep you informed with the process. If you would like further information or express your thoughts to one of our Board of Trustees, you can contact them via email.
